

Student Declaration of Originality and Academic Authenticity

Course Code: SWE 3409 — Mobile Application Development

Assignment Title: Individual Assignment 2: My Name Is Personal Portfolio App

Academic Year: 2026/2027

Student Statement of Authorship

I, the undersigned student, hereby declare that the mobile application, source code, documentation, wireframes, test logs, and standalone Android APK package submitted under repository MOB_A2_2528110 represent my own individual and original work in accordance with the academic regulations of INES-Ruhengeri.

Specifically, I confirm that:

- The core identity sentence “My name is Fajwan Chanjwok.”, professional headline, and biography are personal to my academic journey.
- The technical competencies and projects (RP2350 Telemetry Node and SWE 3513 Clinical Classifier) reflect my genuine contributions without fabricated claims.
- The codebase was constructed using React Native, Expo, and TypeScript functional components, implementing controlled validation, native navigation, and AsyncStorage persistence.
- The application has been packaged and tested as a standalone installable APK using EAS Build without reliance on Expo Go.
- Artificial intelligence assistance has been ethically utilized for scaffolding and documented in evidence/AI_USE.md in strict compliance with university policy.
